Case Law for Command Staff and Supervisors (26CPT810)

Understanding the complexities of the Fourth Amendment can be a challenge for any officer, but it's critical that supervisors and command staff have a solid grasp of case law. When incidents unfold and quick decisions are needed, those in leadership roles must know what the law allows—and why—so they can provide clear, legally defensible guidance. This course is designed to give supervisors and command staff the knowledge and confidence to handle search and seizure issues that arise in the field. It serves as a practical resource for those who must guide their teams through challenging situations while ensuring constitutional compliance.

Tuesday, December 1, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $199

Advanced Criminal Investigations (26CPT590)

Tough cases call for solid legal skills and a deep understanding of what the courts expect from your work. This course builds on what you already know and takes it up a notch. It helps you tackle advanced search and seizure issues, manage informants, and navigate tricky legal situations with confidence—all while making sure your cases stand up in court. You'll learn about complex legal issues that come up in major cases—like search warrants, managing informants, and working in high-risk environments. The course highlights the importance of knowing the law inside and out so that your work is solid in court. You'll also learn practical ways to handle arrests, searches, and other challenges without getting tripped up by technicalities.

Wednesday, December 2, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $199

Interview & Interrogation Case Law (26CPT811)

You'll learn about Miranda rights—where they came from and how they apply on the street—including when someone is considered “in custody,” what counts as interrogation, and how to secure a valid waiver. The course also tackles more advanced topics like how to resume questioning legally after a suspect invokes their rights, how to fix mistakes, and how special rules apply to juveniles. We'll also cover the Fruit of the Poisonous Tree doctrine and what happens in non-criminal settings like administrative interviews. Real-world case studies and practical scenarios make the legal points stick and show you how to handle interviews and interrogations that build strong cases without tripping up in court.
