

Blue to Gold TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Pontiac, Michigan

Closed training for the Oakland County Sheriff's Office

Duty to Intervene: Instructor Certification (Train-the-Trainer)

In this Train the Trainer certification, you will learn how to teach officers when they are legally required to intervene, the liability that can result from failing to act, and the practical tools officers can use to step in safely and effectively. You will cover key intervention topics, including excessive force, false arrest, failure to render aid, officer accountability, and the real-world barriers that can prevent action. You will also learn how to lead classroom discussions, manage questions and resistance, and deliver the full Duty to Intervene curriculum within your own agency.
