Bulletproof Report Writing (#8023-22700-26)

You'll learn how to put your observations and actions into words that make sense to judges, prosecutors, and defense attorneys alike. From explaining probable cause to describing what you saw and did, you'll build the skills to write reports that are thorough and easy to follow. The course also shows how solid documentation can discourage suppression motions and help you recall key details when testifying in court.

Advanced Criminal Investigations (#8023-31410-26)

You'll learn about complex legal issues that come up in major cases—like search warrants, managing informants, and working in high-risk environments. The course highlights the importance of knowing the law inside and out so that your work is solid in court. You'll also learn practical ways to handle arrests, searches, and other challenges without getting tripped up by technicalities.

Wednesday, December 9, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $125

Interview & Interrogation Case Law

You'll learn about Miranda rights—where they came from and how they apply on the street—including when someone is considered "in custody," what counts as interrogation, and how to secure a valid waiver. The course also tackles more advanced topics like how to resume questioning legally after a suspect invokes their rights, how to fix mistakes, and how special rules apply to juveniles. We'll also cover the Fruit of the Poisonous Tree doctrine and what happens in non-criminal settings like administrative interviews.

Thursday, December 10, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $125

Search Warrant Case Law

You'll break down the Fourth Amendment's key principles and see how they apply in today's policing environment. We'll cover everything from plain view and exigent circumstances to what happens in court if a defense lawyer files a motion to suppress. Through real-world examples and case law, you'll build the skills you need to handle search warrants from start to finish.
