Advanced Search & Seizure

Knowing when and how to conduct a search or seizure is a critical part of good police work. This course breaks down the Fourth Amendment and how it applies on the street, giving officers the tools they need to make solid, defensible decisions in the field. You'll get hands-on with the legal foundations behind search and seizure—when you can act, when you need consent or a warrant, and what happens when you cross the line. We'll cover both federal and state cases to make sure you're ready no matter where you work. Through case studies and real-world scenarios, you'll build the confidence to handle these situations the right way.

Thursday, January 14, 2027 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $225

Real World De-Escalation

Knowing how to calm a tense situation can make all the difference for both officers and the people they serve. This course gives officers the tools to de-escalate safely and effectively, helping prevent unnecessary force and build trust with the community. You'll learn practical skills to recognize when things might be about to get out of hand—and how to use communication and non-escalation tactics to keep them from boiling over. Real-life scenarios and interactive exercises bring these skills to life so you're ready for whatever comes your way.

Wednesday, January 15, 2027 | Time: 8:00 AM - 12:00 PM | Cost: $125

Duty to Intervene

Being ready to step in when things go wrong is a key part of building trust—both within the department and in the community. This course gives officers the skills and knowledge they need to recognize when intervention is necessary and to act confidently and safely. You'll learn about the legal requirements and department policies that spell out the duty to intervene, and why it matters. The course also covers the serious consequences of failing to act, including discipline, lawsuits, and even criminal charges. Through real-life case studies and scenarios, you'll develop the confidence to do the right thing—while keeping yourself and your colleagues safe.
